RACQUET RUNS DISAPPOINTINGLY AS AN ODDS-ON FAVORITE.

Hoffman Easily Turns Tables on Randolph Racer Outsiders Take Lion's Share of Purses-Jockey Goldstein Pilots Pair of Winners.

Norfolk, Va., November 16.—At Norfolk this afternoon the first two purses went to the favorites. Outsiders then had their innings and the public choices in the last four races were howled over. Nat Byer, who is handling the horses that P. S. P. Randolph is racing here, furnished one of the disappointments of the day in the olds-on choice, Racquet. The latter was one of the starters in the three-horse field that went to the post in the fourth race, a six and a half furlongs dash in which the Belmont two-year-old, Babbler, and Hofman opposed idm. On the strength of his previous race, when facqued came from behind and won a seven-furlongs race in track record time, he was considered a good iding. He showed good speed for about three-quarters, but when Hoffman challenged at the end he collapsed and was beaten a length. Either Racquet did not run his race today or Hoffman was not ridden with good judgment in his previous effort. As a matter of fact, a majority of the shrewd money found its way into the ring on Hoffman today.

Jockey Goldstein rode two winners, Seneca II. in he second race and Hoffman in the fourtib. Seneca II.'s victory was the second that "Doc" Streett lins secored at the meeting, Hallack having won a race for him a few days ago. The doctor is in a quandary as to where to ship from Norfolk, but the chances are that he will send his string to Juarez.

R. E. Watkins, who broke a long spell of ill luck a few days ago when Lad of Langden galloped home in front, took another purse when Thrifty captured the opening dash in handy fashion. Thrifty was backed into odds-on favoritism and McCahey landed her an easy winner over an indifferent lot.

The best contest of the afternoon came with the unning of the third race, which was for two-year-olds at a mile. The finish found The Nigger and the Belmont colt; Sandhill, fighting it out the entire length of the homestretch. The former was first item by the shortest of heads. Sandhill was ridden with poor judgment, Gordon repeatedly tried, to go through along the

on the leader and at the finish was going much the faster.

Jockey Eddie Dugan will accompany the Belmont stable to Jacksonville.

Thomas Healey will ship part of the horses that he is racing back to Belmont Park tomorrow. The remainder will be taken south by A. G. Weston. Healey will also ship half a dozen yearlings from New York to Jacksonville to be campaigned during the Monereif Park meeting. Jockeys Goldstein and Killingsworth will ride for the Weston stable this winter.

AN ADMIRAL WHO ENJOYS RACING.

Admiral Dillingham, U. S. N., an ardent lover of the thoroughbred, and a capable horseman himself, notwithstanding his nautical calling, is a consistent ratron of the Jamestown races. The admiral is stationed here and he is at the track-every bright day. He has seen little of racing about New York, but in the old days he used to get some sport at New Orleans, and he knew Hawthorne pretty well.

The admiral will accept a tip when he thinks it comes from a reliable source, but he dopes 'em for the control of the wu judgment than to take another man's word for

Admiral Dillingham told David Dunlop the other day at the Monticello that he was looking for an old friend of his, an Irishman by the name of McCarthy, who put him in the way of winning $210 at Hawthorne some ten years ago. McCarthy was a man he met the winter before at New Orleans. When McCarthy saw him he shook hands cordially and said: "Captain, is there anything I can do for ye?"

ye?"
"There is, McCarthy," the gallant seaman replied.
"You can put me on to a winner. This is my first trip here this season and I knew nothing personally of the form of these horses. I have just $32 that isn't busy, so I'm willing to invest it as your judginent dictates."

"Wait right here," returned the genial McCarthy, and it's me that will dig ye up a winner, Capain."

The admiral promised to

"and it's me that win dig ye up a winner, Cap" tain."
The admiral promised to do as he was bidden, and McCarthy disappeared in the direction of the paddock. McCarthy was back in five minutes.
"I have a good one for ye," he said in his broadest Limerick brogue. "It can't lose."
McCarthy gave the admiral the name of a horse which the admiral cannot recall, and was off again. Thirty of the thirty-two went on that horse at 7 to 1, and the horse came home on the bit.
"I walted around until after the last race," the admiral said to Mr. Dunlop. "to see my friend McCarthy. But he did not show up, nor have I seen him to this day."—New York Telegraph.

ATTACK ON THE HART-AGNEW LAW.

Further Details of the Suits Brought to Test Question of Constitutionality.

New York, November 16.—The action recently brought to set aside the Hart-Agnew anti-racing acts in the courts, on the ground of an upconstitutional apportionment, is brought by the following persons, whose status is:

F. Granville Munson, of 508 West 1437d street, Borough of Manhattan—An inhabitant of the state for more than one year and less than two preceding the election of Tuesday. November 8, who has never been since 1906 qualified to vote and has never been since 1906 qualified to vote and has never voted at any election in this state.

Godfrey Lippe, resident of Nyack, Rockland County—Who became twenty-one years old during the year preceding the last Tuesday election, and has never qualified to vote at any election held prior to that of November 8.

Baniel Hogan, 643 Tenth street, Borough of Brooklyn—Who became qualified to vote within the year preceding the election of last Tuesday.

Bache McE. Whitlock, 535 Park avenue, Borough of Manhattan—Who became twenty-one during the year preceding the election. This petitioner is a member of the well-known bankers of the same name.

William S. Revnolds, 348 West Forty-eighth member of the well-known bankers of the same name.

William S. Reynolds, 348 West Forty-eighth street, Borough of Manhattan—Who by virtue of the changes made in the Assembly district in which he resides feels, in common with other citizens thus affected, aggrieved.

In summarized form the petition, joined in by the parties enumerated, holds that there are forty-eight instances where blocks in Manhattan and Brooklyn located in one Senate district an addoming another Senate district have a smaller citizen population that the excess population of the district in which such blocks are situated over the population of such adjoining Senate district.

Attached to the petition is a certificate of the secretary of state certifying to the population of these blocks as ascertained by the census in 1905. The Senate districts referred to are the Sixteenth, Twentieth, Fourteenth, Twelfth and Seventeenth in Manhattan and the Seventh and Ninth in Brooklyn.

Twentieth, Fourteenth, Twelfth and Seventeenth in Manhattan and the Seventh and Ninth in Brooklyn.

The petition also claims that the apportionment act of 1907 possessed in even greater degree the vices which led the Court of Appeals to condenn the apportionment act of 1906.

The Court of Appeals held that the Thirteenth Senate District in the Borough of Manhattan, as created by the act of 1906, was not in as compact form as practicable, but on the contrary possessed all the evidences of being a gerrymander. The petition asserts that the apportionment act of 1907 created Senate districts which were even more irregular and extraordinary in point of form and the petition points particularly to the Seventeenth Senate District, which is alleged to have forty-one sides and forty-two angles; to the Ninth Senate District, in the City of Buffalo, which has thirty-three sides and angles, and to certain other Senate districts equally lacking in compactness. The districts referred to are pictured on maps at tached to the petition.

The petition also alleges that the apportionment act of 1907 did not apportion the assemblymen in the manner provided by the Constitution and claims that Queens should have received five assemblymen in the manner provided by the Constitution and claims that Queens should have received five assemblymen in the manner provided by the Constitution and claims that Queens should have received five assemblymen in the manner provided by the Constitution and claims that Queens should have received five assemblymen in the manner provided by the Constitution and claims that Queens should have received five assemblymen in the manner provided by the Constitution and claims that Queens should have received five assemblymen in the manner provided by the Constitution and claims that Queens should have received five assemblymen in the manner provided by the Constitution and claims that Queens should have received five assemblymen in the manner provided by the Constitution and claims that Queens should have rece that Queens should have received five assemblymen. Westchester five assemblymen and Albany four, instead of the smailer nimber which are awarded to each of these counties in the present apportionment.

William S. Reynolds, one of the petitioners in this action, when interviewed said:

"When the illegalities of the present apportionment of the state into Senate and Assembly districts came to my knowledge, I instructed my attorney to commence the proper action to have the court pass upon the apportionment. Formerly my own Senate district included the territory in this county from Forty-third street to Eighty-ninth street and from Eighth avenue to the Hudson River. It was gerrymandered by the present apportionment to include the territory from Thirtieth street to Sixty-seventh street, thereby adding in two strong Tammany districts and taking out two strong Republican districts."

Attorney Johnston, who represents Mr. Reynolds, is quoted thusly:

"If the party which happens to be in power does not fulfill all requirements of the Constitution. in making an apportionment, any clitzen may move the court to review it. With this end in view Mr. Reynolds intends to have the present apportionment reviewed by the Supreme Court, and consequently has instructed me to begin this action."

The state Constitution makes special provision for a speedy consideration of apportionment cases, so that it is quite possible a decision will be handed down within two months. An evidence of how swiftly these cases receive consideration may be found in the Hearst mayoralty case, when a decision on a mandamus action for a recount was ordered within two weeks after the mandamus was granted. This new action is not the first to be brought to upset the Hart-Agnew bills. On July 20, 1908, a mandamus action of a proportionment cases, substitute measures. Governor Hughes was renominated and re-elected, and the next teges at the codification of the laws on March 12, 1909. In codification in the Hart-Agnew bills in those cases the same uportion of th

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Starier Mars Cassidy has released Alice and Regon from his schooling list, which leaves six horses still under the ban, namely, Tom Hayward, Ilma, Ethel D., Ollvia Miekle, Admonitor and Tony W.

When Louis Ezell had the Lazarus horses at Hamilton last spring, and Eagle Bird was a frequent winner, there was in the stable another Macy two-year-old, called I'm There. This fellow was outworking Eagle Bird in the mornings and was considered so good that he was kept for a killing at Saratoga, and was never sent to the races on the Canadian circuit. The killing never came off, I'm There turned out to be a "morning glory," and never ran successfully when the colors were up. He is still running in maiden races.

HANDICAP YIELDS A SURPRISE.

Chester Krum, Extreme Outsider, Beats Spellbound and Arasee in Oakland Feature.

San Francisco, Cal., November 16.—Chester Krum, outsider in a field of four, gained an easy victory in the Crescendo Handicap, the feature of the card at Oakland. Arasee, on the streight of having won the Opening Handicap, ruled favorite, but Spellbound was strongly supported. The two choices raced out on almost even terms until the stretch was reached, with Spellbound showing a head in front. Turning for home, A. Thomas got through on the rail with Chester Krum, and the son of Sir Hercules won by three lengths from Spellbound, with Arasee a length farther away. Arasee was carried wide in the last quarter by Spellbound.

The racing was of an interesting nature throughout, and most of the winners were well hacked. Garner grew overconfident with Lord of the Forest in the third and eased his mount, with the result that Roy Junior got up in time to beat him a head. Frank Doss was on hand and bid up Roy Junior from $500 to $800, at which figure he secured the horse. E. L. Jones claimed Lord of the Forest for $750.

Prosper came back after his good race of yesterday and led Netting and Harry Stanhope home. Netting made a fine showing after getting away poorly. G. Archibald landed Smiley Metzner winner of the fifth by outriding Gargan on Emma G. at the finish. Archibald rode three winners and A. Thomas two.

Willie Doane arrived from Vancouver with the stable of Brophy & Jansen, consisting of Altamov. Green Goods, Laura Clay, Lord Provost, Blue Heron, Harry Rogers and Wambro.

O. A. Martin has brought Temblo, Maybelle and Airy Merry here from Oroville.

Jake Marklein and Rod McMahon are among the late arrivals.

George Rose intends to write J. L. Holland regarding the attitude of President Thomas H. Williams of the Pacific Jockey Club in the matter of the proposed meeting at Santa Anita, and from remarks he made today likely will urge that the proposition be abandoned for the present. Mr. Rose agrees with Mr. Williams that it would be inadvisable to race at Los Angeles for a year at least.

W. O'B. Macdonough for the present. Mr. Rose agrees with Mr. Williams that it would be inadvisable to race at Los Angeles for a year at least.

W. O'B. Macdonough formerly raced a big stable, but sold most of the produce of his stock farm during the past two seasons.

DEATH OF A PRINCELY TURFMAN.

We much regret to announce the death of Prince Hatzfeldt, which took place at a London botel on Thursday night, November 3. Together with Princess Hatzfeldt he had just returned from abroad, and while at the hotel was suddenly attacked by illness, which turned out to be acute pneumonia, and despite the services of specialists and his own physician, the prince passed away as stated above. A solenn requiem will be held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Farm street, Berkeley square, W., on Monday next, at 10:30 a. m., and the funeral will take place at Crottorf, Germany, on the following Wednesday.

The deceased Prince Franz Hatzfeldt was born on June 15, 1853, at Marxhelm, Hesse-Nassau, and was the only son of Alfred Prince von Hatzfeldt-Woldenburg and Gabrielle Countess of Dietrichstein-Proskau-Leslie. He married in 1889 Miss Clara Huntingdon, of Detroit, Mich., U. S. A., and from 1806 they resided at Draycot House, Chippenham, Wilts.

Huntingdon, of Detroit, Macto.

1896 they resided at Draycot House, Chippenham, Wilts.

Prince Hatzfeldt was a well-known figure in society and in the world of sport, and he and the princess cutertained largely at their town house in Berkeley square. It was not until seven years ago that the prince first became an owner of race horses, first registering his color, "yellow," under National Hunt Rules in 1903, but his jacket was not long in becoming famous, for already in 1906 it was carried to victory in the chief steeplechase of the world, the Grand National, by means of Ascetic's Silver, which, in the hands of his trainer, the Hon. Hunt Rules in 1903, but his jacket was not long in becoming famous, for already in 1906 it was carried to victory in the chief steeplechase of the world, the Grand National, by means of Ascetic's Silver, which, in the hands of his trainer, the Hon. Aubrey Hastings, brought off a 20 to 1 chance, winning in easy fashion by ten lengths from Red Lad, Aunt May and a score of others. Prince Hatzfeldt, be it here said, also owned flat racers during the last three years of his life. His colors under Jockey Club rules were yellow, with a black and yellow-quartered cap, but he owned nothing that did much on the flat.

Among his earlier jumpers was Dearslayer, which he bought from J. G. Bulteel, and which won a minor steeplechase or two for him and ran in Moifna's and Kirkland's "Nationals." Ascetic's Silver fell in Kirkland's race. He was at that time the property of P. J. Dunne. Soon afterwards the unsexed son of Ascetic, out of Silver Lady, was purchased by Prince Hatzfeldt, and he ran twice that back-end without success. In 1896 two more failures preceded his memorable victory in the Grand National, but at Sandown Park in February he broke a blood vessel and was pulled up. Doubtless to this mishap was due his belng allowed to start at 10 to 1 at his next appearance, early in March, when he easily defeated Shoot, Wolf's Folly, etc., for a three-mile steeplechase at Hurst Park. How he then "slammed" the opposition in the Grand National is outlined above. On that occasion he carried 10st. 9 lbs., but when he again faced the starter at Anirree a twelvemonth later his weight was the substantial one of 12 st. 7 lbs. Despite the fact that only such giants among 'chasers as Cloister and Manifesto had managed to get home under that hunting burden, Ascetic's Silver's friends would not be denied, and he shared favoritism with Red Lad. He was badly interfered with, however, in the first round, and although he completed the course he finished a very long way in rear of the winner, Mr. Stanley Howard's Eremon. Prince Hatzfeldt's se

FAUNTLEROY AGAIN HIMSELF

COLT THAT DISAPPOINTED DURING SUMMER SHOWS GOOD FORM AT LATONIA.

Beats Formidable Opposition in Easy Fashion Jockey J. Deavenport Victim of Accident-McIvor Beats Heavily Backed Edda.

Cincinnati, O., November 16.—H. C. Hallenbeck's Fauntleroy showed an impressive performance this afternoon in winning the mile and seventy yards handicap at Latonia and seems to be back to the good form that marked his early training and promised development into one of the crack three-year-olds of this season. He went amiss last winter and has apparently just rounded to again. He had up 115 pounds in today's race and disposed of his opposition, which included Dr. Holzberg, Green Seal, King's Daughter and Camel, in the easlest kind of fashlon and was only cantering at the finish. Dr. Holzberg, benefiting by the fast early pace, came strong at the end to take second place from the rapidly tiring Green Seal, King's Daughter retired after going a good three-quarters. It marked her last appearance for the season in his locality, as she will be sent to Jacksonville with others of the McDowell stable.

Bleak weather again prevailed, but the attendance was unexpectedly good and the sport was sufficiently interesting to arouse keen enthusiasm. Favorites and outsiders divided the card.

An accident in the fifth race was an incident of the racing. It happened in about the same fashlom that Koerner received his injury yesterday, and J. Deavenport was the one to suffer. He was astride Nannette and fell in a heap when his mount went down. At first it was thought he had been seriously hurt, as it was half an hour before he regained consciousness. Thorough, examination showed that he had escaped with a severe shaking up and numerous bruises about the body and face. He will not be able to ride again for at least a week.

Two year-olds were engaged in the first three races. Husky Lad and Naughty Lad accounted for the first two purses and McIvor furnished the surprise of the afternoon by outstaying 'the heavily backed Edda in the third. Some were inclined to blame jockey Rice for the Schor filly's defeat, and he might have won on her but for steering wide most of the way, but there is no gainsaying that McIvor is improving with sold ravortices over her in the Eact of the configuration of the comment of the cious, his work commanding favorable comment from horsemen and public. In only one instance, the opening race, was there a break in the perfect alignment of the horses at the start, and this was due to jockey Musgrave's action in attempting to obtain an advantage. Musgrave was fined $100. and was suspended for the remainder of the meeting. The fine was rather a stiff one, but indicated that Morrissey means business and will not tolerate nonsense from the riders.

Capt. E. B. Cassatt's string of racers in charge of trainer J. S. Healy will be shipped tomorrow to Berwyn, Penn., where they will go into winter quarters. Captain Cassatt made an addition to his stable today by the purchase of Miramar from Charles Hughes for $800. He will be put to cross-country racing and also be used in hunting.

W. J. Young purchased from O. L. Richards the two-year-old maiden, Aviator, and will ship him with others in his string to Jacksonville to be raced this winter.

W. G. King-Dodds announced today that he would ship eight horses on Monday next to Pensacola for the thirty-days meeting there, after which he will race at Tampa.

Jockey T. Koerner showed vast improvement today and will likely be up in a few days, but will not resume riding for probably a mouth.

J. J. Flannigan arrived this morning with Morning Song and five yearlings that he intends to ship on the special which will leave here Sunday for Jacksonville.

Starter Cassidy, who departed for Washington last night, was greatly impressed with Cincinnati and the treatment he was accorded during his stay here. "Racing in Kentucky is on a healthy basis and of an order that would be creditable anywhere," said he. "I look to see constant improvement at Latonia and the efforts of the management to conduct he sport on a high plane will surely be appreciated by the public." Mr. Cassidy will leave about Sunday next for Juarez, where he will do the starting this winter.

E. C. Smith, who will act as associate judge and secretary of the Pensacoia and Tampa tracks, sent word here yesterday that he would depart from New York on Thursday next to take up his preliminary duties attending the opening of racing at Pensacola. Joseph J. Burke, who will preside at hoth tracks, will leave New York on Sunday next and will reach Pensacola on Tuesday.

THE LATE DAVID TENNY PULSIFER.

David Tenny Pulsifer, whose death occurred at New York Monday, had for a number of years made his home at the Hotel Endleott in New York City, where he died, aged cighty years.

Fifty years ago he held the amateur billiard championship. He discovered the late Jake Schaefer and made a world's champion of him. When Mr. Pulsifer first saw "The Wizard" he saw that the young fellow had ability. He backed him, became his manager and turned him out a champion.

Mr. Pulsifer owned a fine stable of horses and it is through these he was best known. Brother Dan, Will Elilott, Taxgatherer and Sir Joseph were a few of the thoroughbreds he used to race, but the greatest of them all was Tenny, acknowledged one of the greatest horses of his day. His memorable matches with Salvator, owned by James B. Haggin, for a $25,000 purse, and Longstreet, owned by Mike Dwyer, for a $30,000 prize, are still talked of by old followers of the thoroughbred.

The funeral services will be held in New York today. Mr. Pulsifer requested that his body be cremated, and his wishes will be carried out.
